

Broadband over the traditional telephone network is a good idea.
We need to create more competition in order to keep pricing down.
Currently I am limited to broadband over cable.